Prudential RideLondon, the world’s greatest festival of cycling featuring the world’s top riders and fun for all the family, returns for its sixth year to London and Surrey over the last weekend of July 2018.

More than 100,000 cyclists will participate in seven events taking place in central London on Saturday 28 July and in London and Surrey on Sunday 29 July.

Prudential RideLondon was developed by the Mayor of London, Transport for London and London & Partners in partnership with Surrey County Council and is sponsored by Prudential.

It is Europe’s most successful cycling fundraising event and riders have raised more than £53 million for charity since the event was first staged in 2013.

The event is managed by the London & Surrey Cycling Partnership with live coverage on BBC and worldwide.

This booklet contains important information to help you plan your travel around east London on Sunday 29 July.
• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 100
25,000 amateur cyclists will take on a 100-mile cycle challenge through the closed roads of London and Surrey, starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park before finishing on The Mall.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 46
A 46-mile ride for 5,000 amateur cyclists within the existing 100-mile challenge created specifically for newer and younger riders, also starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and finishing on The Mall.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 19
New for 2018, this 19-mile ride starts at Sandown Park and finishes on The Mall.
The event is specifically for families and young people with children aged 12 – 16 years old able to take part if they are accompanied by an adult and have completed the Level 2 Bikeability training programme or are a member of a British Cycling club.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey Classic
The first British men’s race ever to attain UCI WorldTour status and featuring the best teams in the world. The race starts at Horse Guards Parade, St James’s Park before heading into Surrey and returning to the capital to finish on The Mall.

The event routes through east London are on pages 8-11.

Other Prudential RideLondon events

On Saturday 28 July, the Prudential RideLondon FreeCycle, Handcycle Grand Prix, Classique (as part of the UCI Women’s WorldTour), and Brompton World Championship events take place in central London only (City of London and City of Westminster).

These events are free to attend, include interactive Festival Zones, and provide exciting days out for all the family. For more information about the Prudential RideLondon festival weekend, visit PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk
On Sunday 29 July, there will be an impact on traffic in large parts of London and across Surrey. Roads used by the event will be closed so you’ll need to plan your travel in advance.

Emergency services

Emergencies will be treated as a priority in the usual way. If you require the emergency services, call 999. Emergency vehicle access will be maintained and prioritised throughout all of the Prudential RideLondon events.

Pedestrian crossing points

Pedestrian crossing points are located along the event route. These will be under supervision to help pedestrians cross the road.

Usual crossings may be suspended, but an alternative will be signposted where it will be easier to cross. Please be patient during the event and listen to instructions given by stewards.

On the day

There will be stewards and volunteers positioned along the route. If you require assistance on the day that is not a 999 emergency please ask event staff to help. Alternatively, contact the helpdesk on 0345 894 9773.
