Prudential RideLondon, the world’s greatest festival of cycling featuring the world’s top riders and fun for all the family, returns for its fifth year to London and Surrey over the last weekend of July 2017. More than 100,000 cyclists will participate in six events taking place in central London on Saturday 29 July and in London and Surrey on Sunday 30 July.

Prudential RideLondon was developed by the Mayor of London, Transport for London and London & Partners in partnership with Surrey County Council and is sponsored by Prudential.

It is Europe’s most successful cycling fundraising event and riders have raised a total of more than £41 million for charity since the event was first staged in 2013.

The event is managed by the London & Surrey Cycling Partnership with live coverage on BBC and worldwide.

This booklet contains important information to help you plan your travel around central London on Saturday 29 and Sunday 30 July.

Events on Saturday 29 July

- Prudential RideLondon FreeCycle
  A family friendly ride for cyclists of all ages and abilities to explore an eight mile traffic-free loop in central London including seven festival sites.

- Prudential RideLondon Classique
  See the world’s best female professional cyclists compete in this Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI) Women’s WorldTour race on a spectacular 5.5km circuit in central London.

- Brompton World Championship
  The 12th Brompton World Championship Final will take place on closed roads around St James’s Park.

The event routes for Saturday 29 July are on pages 6-11.

Events on Sunday 30 July

- Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 100
  25,000 amateur cyclists will take on a 100-mile cycle challenge through the closed roads of London and Surrey, starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park before finishing on The Mall.

- Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 46
  A 46-mile ride for 5,000 amateur cyclists within the existing 100-mile challenge created specifically for newer and younger riders, also starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and finishing on The Mall.

- Prudential RideLondon-Surrey Classic
  The first British men’s race ever to attain UCI WorldTour status and featuring the best male cyclists in the world. The race starts at Horse Guards Parade, St James’s Park before heading into Surrey and returning to the capital to finish on The Mall.

The event routes for Sunday 30 July are on pages 12-15.

Other Prudential RideLondon events

On Friday 28 July, the Prudential RideLondon Grand Prix will see a series of BMX, handcycle and youth races take place at the Lee Valley VeloPark in Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park. The event is free to attend, includes an interactive Festival Zone, and provides an exciting day out for all the family.

Roads adjoining the event routes will have local access only for residents and businesses, with usual Saturday and Sunday parking restrictions unless otherwise stated. Some adjoining roads will have no vehicle access during the road closure period. See maps on page 6-15.

For assistance with planning your journey during the weekend, visit PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk/road-closures
A number of bridges in central London will be closed on Saturday 29 July until the evening of Sunday 30 July. Blackfriars Bridge and London Bridge will remain open on Saturday 29 July. Waterloo, Blackfriars and London Bridge will be open on Sunday 30 July.

Visit PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk/road-closures for more information about river crossings during event weekend.

If you usually park on a road used for the event, please move your vehicle the night before. Vehicles cannot be parked on the event route from 00:01 on Saturday 29 July until the road reopens. Any vehicle left on the route or parked in a suspended parking bay will be removed from the route.

There will be some planned engineering works taking place on the Transport for London network on the event weekend.

Due to event road closures, some bus services will need to be diverted temporarily, suspended or will terminate earlier than usual. Some stops may also be temporarily relocated.

Check tfl.gov.uk for real time travel information and the TfL journey planner.

On Saturday 29 July, there are minor restrictions at Puddle Dock. On Sunday 30 July, the East-West Cycle Superhighway will be closed in both directions from Tower Hill to Bridge Street (Westminster Bridge) during the morning.

Emergencies will be treated as a priority in the usual way. If you require the emergency services, call 999. Emergency vehicle access will be maintained and prioritised throughout all of the Prudential RideLondon events.

There will be stewards and volunteers positioned along the route. If you require assistance during the event that is not a 999 emergency please ask event staff to help. Alternatively, contact the helpdesk on 0345 894 9773.

Pedestrian crossing points are located along the event route. These will be under supervision to help pedestrians cross the road. Usual crossings may be suspended, but an alternative will be signposted where it will be easier to cross. Please be patient during the event and listen to instructions given by stewards.

To help plan your travel, road closure information for Sunday 30 July can be viewed prior to the event and live on the day at PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk/road-closures

All Prudential RideLondon road closure information is shared with travel information services, online mapping providers and satellite navigation companies.
